

FOD Reduction & Paint Protection

Looking for Paint Protection and FOD reduction in your manufacturing process?

Acres have led a number of paint protection projects with leading manufacturers who have grown tired of their high quality painted parts being scuffed or scratched during internal/ external transportation. Our high quality stillages, trolleys and returnable part protection media ensures that parts arrive at the assembly line in the right condition and that delays are not incurred due to preventable damage.

Solutions:

- Reduction in quality related non-conformances
- Reduction in delays and increased lead time due to rejections
- Increased customer satisfaction
- Increased profits
- Improved supply chain relationship
