We are specialists in the design and manufacture of production support equipment. Our projects are typically aimed at improving health and safety, quality and productivity. In making these improvements our clients benefit from reduced operating costs and increased profit. We have been established since 1947 and have continually re-invented our offering to suit the changes of industry and market opportunities. We understand the importance of HSQE and on-time delivery to the rail industry. Let us help you achieve your operational goals...
